4 If I want to start a new project, make a big change in my life, make a big purchase or anything that's really a large investment in either time, or energy, or money, then I like to ask people's advice. But ultimately, I always like to have the last word.

Jen

5 I often ask people for advice when I'm at work and often consult with my friends for different pieces of advice: what I should do, when I should do it, if I should do it at all!
