Hi Pete,

Last weekend I visited my cousins in Fantasigham. I didn't like it. Fantasigham is not like London. It's much smaller than London. There aren't any leisure centres or cinemas, so people spend a lot of time in the pub. It also rained all the time I was there. I didn't like it but I was happy to see my cousins. Next time I'll invite them to visit me in London. Bye and see you in college next week.
