

Nombre:

Fecha:

Clase:

El verbo ESTAR - to be (temporary conditions/situations)

<https://youtu.be/2M-rgSRZLGA>

Pronombre Personal	Estar - singular	Pronombre Personal	Estar - plural
Yo		Nosotr@s
Tú		Vosotr@s
usted/ÉL/ELLA		ustedes/Ellos/Ellas

Translate the following sentences into Spanish.

1. I am = Yo estoy

I am working. = _____

I am busy. = _____
2. You are (informal) = Tú estás

You are reading = _____

You are studying = _____
3. He is = Él está

He is talking = _____

He is listening = _____
4. She is = Ella está

She is singing = _____

She is performing = _____
5. You are (formal) = usted está

You are angry = _____

You are stressed = _____
6. We are (m&f) = Nosotros estamos

We are dancing = _____

We are happy = _____
7. They are (m&f) = Ellos están

They are playing = _____

They are training = _____
8. They are (fem) = Ellas están

They are shopping = _____

They are in the city = _____
9. You-all are (formal) = ustedes están

You-all are chatting = _____

You-all are in the office = _____
10. You-all are (informal) = Vosotros estáis

You-all are talking = _____

You-all are in the office = _____

You use ESTAR when talking about = How you _____ and where you _____.

Estar acronym = PLACE

P- _____

L- _____

A- _____

C- _____

E- _____

Position: (where you/it physically is at - position can/will change)

Location: (Where you are now - location can be found on a map: school, cafeteria, home...)

Santiago is in Chile. Santiago _____ en _____. (location)

I'm in Spanish class. Yo _____ en _____ de español. (location)

Emotional State: (condition)

I am angry. Yo _____ enojado.

I am (feel) sad. Yo _____ triste.

Physical State: (feelings)

I am (feel) tired. Yo _____ cansado.

State of Motion: (action - ing words)

I am writing. Yo _____ escribiendo.

Using "estar" to ask the location of a person, object or place.

Translate:

Where is ... ? = ¿ _____ ... ?

Where is the hotel? ¿ _____ ?

Where is my car? ¿ _____ ?

One of the most useful ways you can use the verb _____ is by _____ and _____ for "_____".

In order to use _____ effectively when talking about _____, you need to learn some basic location and direction vocabulary. (These are called prepositions)

The use of prepositions to help with giving and asking for directions:

Where is ...? = ¿Dónde está...?

To the right = _____

To the left = _____

In front = _____

In, on or at = _____

Near = _____

Far away = _____

Underneath/under/below = _____

Above = _____

Between = _____

Beside = _____

Behind = _____