

Exercise 10

Complete the conversation. Use the correct form of the words in brackets.

A: I know that you have other plans, but if you _____ (can) come to my town on Saturday, you wouldn't regret it. It's the day of our town festival. It's not huge, but it's usually good fun. It's usually held in the park, but if it _____ (rain) the organizers _____ (hold) most of the events at the town hall instead.

B: OK, I'll see if I can come after all. I might need to move a few things around.

A: Great. If you _____ (come) to my house first, we'll go to the festival from there. If I _____ (was) you, I'd aim to get here by 10:30. After that it'll get very busy and you might be too late for the parade at 11:00. If you're coming by bus, _____ (ask) the driver to stop at Cranshaw Road – my house is a five-minute walk from there. Don't worry, though. If you _____ (not / find) my house, text me and I _____ (come) and collect you.

B: That's a good idea. I've got your number.

A: So, maybe see you on Saturday? If you change your mind, just _____ (let) me know.

B: OK, will do!
