

|     |         |                        |     |           |      |
|-----|---------|------------------------|-----|-----------|------|
| 1.7 | 207.600 | Russian and Belarusian | 7.5 | 73.5      |      |
| 78  | 22      | 1,996,000              | 3.1 | 9,255,000 | 84.9 |

The total land area of Belarus is _____ km<sup>2</sup>. Belarus is the 84th largest country in the world and the 13th in Europe. The population of the country as of 1 January 2022 is _____. The average life expectancy at birth was _____ years in 2018. Urban population – the people living in cities – is _____% (7,232,000). Rural population of the country makes up _____% (2,024,000). The capital city is Minsk with _____ inhabitants.

Ethnicity. Belarusians make up most of the population – _____%. That is 7,990,000 from 9,413,000 according to the 2019 census. Russians make up _____%, Poles – _____%, Ukrainians – _____% of the population in Belarus.

A lot of languages are spoken in Belarus, but the state languages are _____. Most people in the country prefer to speak Russian.

The holidays in Belarus when people have a day off work are _____.