The Real Conditional with "will"

A. Review the rules and examples of the real conditional with "will"

The Real Conditional with will

It involves a present choice and a future consequence.

(If clause), (Result clause).
Example: If you drive north for 4 hours, you will arrive at the border of Colombia.

(Result clause) (If clause).
Example: You will have a great time if you go to Ambato for Carnaval.

Be careful! Never use will in the if clause:
If you ~~will~~ drive north for 4 hours, you will arrive at Colombia.
You will have a great time if you ~~will~~ go to Ambato.

B. Complete each real conditional sentence with the words in parentheses. Add "if" and "will" according to the sentence.

Example: If you book now, you will save 20% on your travel package. (you / book now)

1. If you stay at the Marbella hotel, _____ a good time. (you / have)
2. _____ the travel agency, they will help you plan your vacation. (you / call)
3. A tour guide will take you around the city _____. (you / prefer)
4. _____ the zoo if I go to San Diego. (I / visit)
5. If we miss the bus, _____ a taxi. (we / take)
6. _____ time, we will go to the aquarium. (we / have)
7. If they make their reservation by Saturday, _____ a discount. (the hotel / give them)
8. _____ (we / leave) by 5:00 pm, _____ (we / arrive) on time.
9. _____ (I / rest) if _____ (the journey / be) too long.
10. _____ a vacation (you / take), where _____ (you / go)?

LIVEWORKSHEETS