

Exercise 5

Correct the underlined relative pronouns in the sentences.

1. Halloween is an ancient Celtic festival when -> is now celebrated in many countries across the globe.
2. Yorkshire puddings, that -> are made with flour, eggs and milk, are a savoury food served with roast beef in the UK.
3. In Denmark, parents have to select baby names from a list of around 7,000 names who -> the government has approved.
4. Niue is an island nation in the South Pacific which -> coins feature characters from Disney and Star Wars movies.
5. In Sudan there are more than 200 pyramids, where -> is more than the number of pyramids found in Egypt.
6. According to Greek myth, the name 'Europe' came from the Phoenician princess Europa, which -> was the mother of King Minos of Crete.
7. Hawaii is the only place in the US which -> coffee is grown commercially.
8. Llanfairpwllgwyngyllgogerychwyrndrobwllllantysiliogogogoch, who -> is located in Wales, has the longest name of any town in Europe.