

Part 1: Complete the email with ONE corresponding word:

A British organization is offering grants to students wishing to improve their English this summer. This organization will provide students with tuition fees and accommodation. Tell them what your expectations are as a potential student.

1)..... Mr. Hoff,

I have seen your 2) in the current edition of English Today and I 3)..... like to apply for a grant to 4)..... my English in one of your 5)..... this 6)..... .

My main 7)..... for applying is that I lack funds for 8)..... tuition fees and 9)..... in the UK for 10)..... than one month. A 11)..... is the only way I 12)..... pay for these expenses as I 13)..... not allowed to work in the 14)..... as an International student.

Regarding the 15)..... I would like to 16)..... on, I am particular interested 17).....
..... enhancing my speaking level. Although I 18)..... to practice every day, I feel that it would be extremely 19)..... if I could 20)..... more about pronunciation in your 21)..... and have the opportunity to interact with 22)..... speakers.

If I am 23)..... for this program, I would be so grateful since my 24)..... is to become an English teacher in the 25)....., and in my country, teachers 26)..... obtain at least the level B2 according 27)..... the Common European Framework of Languages.

Thank 28)..... for your time and consideration. If you 29)..... extra information, please do not 30)..... to contact me. I look 31)..... to hearing from you soon

Yours 32).....

Anja Mellark.

Part 2: Make questions for the following answers:

1)

Yes, Joan loves eating sweets.

2)

Something odd happened during the storm last night.

3)

Patricia is craving cookies because she is pregnant.

4)

The stakeholders have offered a new compensation to the sales department.

5)

I wrote a romantic letter to one of the teachers.

6)

The police officer towed Jane's car this morning.

7)

Jane's car was towed this morning.

8)

1000 people took part in the Boston race a couple of days ago.