

EnOLA HOLMES

1- Read the summary of the movie and choose the correct verb tense.

Enola Holmes _____ the youngest sibling in the famous Holmes family. She is extremely intelligent, and she _____ the social norms for women of the time. Her mother, Eudoria, _____ her everything from chess to jujitsu and _____ her to read every book in Ferndell Hall, their home.

On the day of her 16th birthday, Enola awakens to find that her mother _____, leaving only some birthday gifts- Enola meets her brothers, Mycroft and Sherlock but they _____ to recognize her at first, not having seen her in many years.

Sherlock _____ her to be an intelligent girl, whereas Mycroft _____ her troublesome. As her legal guardian, Mycroft _____ to send her away to a finishing school run by Miss Harrison.

Enola finds clues and money left by her mother and _____, disguised as a boy. On the train, she finds the young Viscount Tewkesbury hidden in a travel bag.

She _____ he is a fool but warns him that a man in a brown hat is on the train and _____ for him. To escape, Enola and Tewkesbury jump off the train and flee to London, where they part ways. Disguised as a proper Victorian lady, she _____ to trace her mother and leaves cryptic messages in the newspaper personal advertisements for Eudoria to find. As Enola continues to search for her mother, Linthorn _____ to kill her, but she manages to set off explosives and escapes. So, she decides to find Viscount Tewkesbury again to save him.

Mycroft _____ Inspector Lestrade of Scotland Yard to track Enola down. Meanwhile, Enola warns Tewkesbury and helps him escape but she is caught by Lestrade, and Mycroft _____ her in Miss Harrison's finishing school. Sherlock visits her and admits he is impressed by her detective work. Tewkesbury _____ into the school hidden in a wicker basket, and they escape together, stealing Miss Harrison's motor car. They reach a fork in the road and, rather than returning to London, Enola decides they must go to Tewkesbury's home and face his uncle, who she has deduced was trying to kill him. The house is seemingly deserted, and Linthorn attempts to shoot them, but they manage to overcome him. Tewkesbury's grandmother is revealed as the real villain, she had his father killed and attempts to kill Tewkesbury, not wanting him to take his father's place in the House of Lords and vote for The Reform Bill, which he supports but his grandmother opposes.

Sherlock _____ at Scotland Yard, and Lestrade asks him two questions: firstly how he had managed to solve the case, and secondly how his sister solved it first. Enola deciphers a message she finds in the newspaper but deduces it was sent not by her mother but by Sherlock. At the meeting point, Sherlock and Mycroft eventually give up, while Enola _____ as a boy, watches. Enola leaves an old toy for Sherlock to find, and despite knowing Enola was there, he chooses not to look for her. When she returns to her lodging, she finds her mother waiting. Eudoria explains why she _____ to leave, and why she must leave again.

Enola _____ her freedom and her purpose, she is a lady detective and a finder of lost souls.