

Directions: Match the people in the community in column B with their respective contributions in the community in column A.

A

B

1. In the absence of health professionals, they take charge of the health conditions of families in the community.

2. They are the molders of young minds and future leaders of the country

3. They keep our community clean and green.

4. They keep peace and order in our community

5. They protect our houses in case of fire.

