Holidays around the world

Read and guess the holiday.

Aric: When I was small I believed that Father Christmas comes at night when everyone is asleep. His reindeer can fly and takes him from house to house to deliver all the gifts. They land on the roofs of the houses and then Father Christmas climbs down the chimney to leave the presents under the Christmas tree.

Liz: I love this holiday. It can be really good fun. I love playing tricks on people and I don't mind if people play tricks on me. It's one day of the year you can be really silly and have a laugh and it's OK.

Nick: It is a popular tradition in the USA to buy a big pumpkin and make a jack-o'-lantern. People put their jack-o'-lanterns in front of the windows of their homes or in their gardens. Sometimes it's scary, but fun. I like to put candles inside of the pumpkin.

Melisa: This is the time of year when people make 'Resolutions'. Resolutions are promises to change habits during the year. Some typical resolutions are: 'I'm going to clean my room regularly' or 'I'm going to do more chores'. Most people don't keep their resolutions, but some do.

Harry: On this holiday morning we have a big breakfast. After breakfast we all go to church. When we get home, we give each other chocolate eggs. (Kids get the biggest ones!) Then we play 'Egg hunt'. My parents hide some eggs in the garden and Emily and I look for them. We love playing it.

Jack: On this day we make cards and send them to the person we love more. In the USA, people give gifts to the person they love, or they buy red flowers, they write a poem, they make chocolates. When I fell in love, I will do it.
