

Writing Part 2 (A story)

- Remember you should spend about 20 minutes writing your story. In this time, you need to plan the story, write it and check it.
- Try to use a variety of different words and adjectives.
- Don't write too many words over the limit – if you write too much, you are more likely to make mistakes.

Exam advice

Type your name here:

angry at work miserable on holiday I lost something sad my husband nervous a teacher a shop assistant at home I forgot something my family depressed I missed the bus/train a police officer embarrassed a friend disappointed in a sports match
I broke something my wife

B Read the exam question. The words and phrases in the box show ideas you could use in this story. Put them into the correct part of the table.

Your English teacher has asked you to write a story.
Your story must begin with this sentence.

I'll never forget the day everything went wrong.

Place(s)

People

Problem(s)

Feelings