Turn the following sentences into their negative forms.

This exercise is difficult.

We're from Spain.

My grandmother's name's Adelaide.

The kids are in the garden.

You're English.

My car is very expensive.

This is my student's notebook.

These photographs are very nice.

Alex is twenty-five years old.

I'm fine.

Complete the sentences. Use a negative form of 'to be'.

Example: That house … very big. That house isn't very big.

1. He _____ here right now.

2. They _____ ready to go.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. It _____ very sunny outside.

4. We _____ at school today.

5. I _____ on the phone.

6. Mr Sebel _____ in the classroom.

7. My friend John _____ very optimistic.

8. You _____ honest with me.

9. These shirts _____ expensive.

10. Maria's favorite foods _____ spicy.

11. Sarah _____ vegetarian.

12. The students _____ in the classroom.

13. You _____ at the schoolparty yet.

14. He _____ happy with his new car.

15. I _____ hungry at the moment.

LIVEWORKSHEETS