

Conditionals-if, provided, as long as, unless

If you eat garlic the vampires will leave you alone.

Provided that you eat garlic the vampires will leave you alone.

As long as you eat garlic the vampires will leave you alone.

Unless you eat garlic, the vampires won't leave you alone.

Re-write the sentences with the words given in brackets:

1. If you don't put a Jack O' Lantern at the door the spirits will enter your house. (as long as)
2. If you don't give the kids a treat they'll pay a trick on you. (provided)
3. It won't be scary if you don't turn the lights out. (unless)
4. Witches can't fly without a broomstick. (as long as)
5. Only telepathic people can read minds. (unless)
6. Dragons won't eat you if you don't go in their caves. (provided)