It's time to read.

Working people

My name is Joanna. I'm from Hungary and I live in Sopron. I work for a software company. We make online courses. I'm a sales rep and I meet customers. I sell the products to training companies and schools. We have three people in the Sales Department. I work in West Hungary and Austria.

My name's Fred Meesmacker. I'm from Fance, but I live in England. I work for Capgemini. It's a global company. We have over 300 offices in more than 40 countries. I'm a project manager and I manage a team of IT technicians. I have eight people in my team and they manage computer systems for the client. This month, we have a project with a food company.

02 |

These sentences were taken from the text. Choose the correct meaning (a-c) of the words in bold.

I'm a sales rep and I meet customers.

a) to call over the phone

b) to get together and talk

c) to convince

I sell the products to training companies and schools.

a) to give something to someone else in return for money

b) to offer something

c) to give something to someone without paying

I work for Capgemini. It's a global company.

a) operating in many cities in a country

b) operating y many countries over the world

c) operating in some regions across a country

We have over 300 offices in more than 40 countries.

a) more than

b) less than

c) the same as

I'm a project manager and I manage a team of IT technicians.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

a) to work for employees

b) to follow employees

c) to be responsible for controlling and organizing employees

03 |

Which sentences are TRUE according to the texts?

	Joanna manages a large team of employees.
	Joanna works in two different places.
	Joanna is the head of the Sales Department.
	Joanna works as a sales representative for a software company.
	Fred's company operates in over 40 countries.
	Fred leads a team of IT technicians.
	Fred isn't a project manager.
	Fred's team manages food distribution for the client.

LIVEWORKSHEETS