

Listen to the text and correct the sentences

Eugene Paton was born in Kyiv in 1870.

His father was Russian Consul in Nice, Italy.

Paton graduated from Dresden Medical Institute and later became a famous surgeon.

Eugene Paton graduated from St Petersburg University and then had a project of the Dresden railway station.

He got a degree of a railway engineer at Dresden Polytechnic Institute.

At the age of 45 he took up the electric welding.

He headed the construction of the first wooden bridge in Kyiv.

The bridge is 2000 metres long.