

Discuss the advantages and disadvantages of studying abroad.

Complete the gaps with the appropriate letter a – j.

It is believed by some people that studying abroad _____. However, studying abroad has both advantages and disadvantages.

There are many advantages of studying abroad. _____ as well as become familiar with another culture, _____. Another advantage is that while living away from their parents and taking complete responsibility for their actions, _____. On top of that, spending time in a foreign country and socialising with different people _____ employment possibilities in case you want to live abroad permanently.

_____. One disadvantage is being away from your family and friends. Some people are not easily adjustable _____ is more than they can handle. In that case, they could feel disappointment and lose self-confidence. _____ better knowledge and skills, nor more favourable employment prospects, although it costs a lot of money _____.

In conclusion, experiencing foreign cultures or educational systems in other countries can only be beneficial to our personal growth. As far as I am concerned, _____.

- a. and not everyone can afford it
- b. One of them is that a student can learn or improve a foreign language
- c. Studying abroad has its disadvantages, too
- d. which is an enriching and valuable experience
- e. Moreover, a foreign degree does not necessarily mean
- f. that kind of opportunity for firsthand learning should not be missed
- g. young people become really mature and independent
- h. is better than getting a university degree in one's own country
- i. is a great opportunity to become aware of
- j. and they might realise that fitting in and finding new friends