Adventurous Dining

Tired of eating at the same boring restaurants? Looking for a change? Here are some restaurants that offer original menus, original locations, and original service for an ... yes, you guessed it, original restaurant experience. See for yourself which ones you fancy.

- A. Looking for something adventurous? The Archipelago in London is just the thing for you. At £10.50, the most popular meal in this restaurant is crocodile. Yes, you read it correctly, crocodile. It is served with a yellow plum dip. If that is not daring enough for you, there are plenty of other dishes on the menu. If you are feeling brave, try the "Love Bug Salad" or a delicious plate of locusts and crickets (саранча и сверчки) for just £7.50. Good luck.
- B. Want to enjoy the sights while you're eating? Try The Top of the World restaurant. At 800 feet (244 m) above Las Vegas, diners can enjoy a spectacular view of Las Vegas in this revolving restaurant. However, the real adventure starts at the end of the meal. That's when the customers are taken from their seats at the ground level to the observation rooms in elevators that travel at a remarkable speed. Hold on to your stomach!
- C. Longing for dinner with some drama? Dine with mimes at Mim in Barcelona. The service is unique. Your waiter will take your order in mime and keep you entertained with performances in between courses. The location is also special. Customers eat in theatrical surroundings. Now the question is how do you mime "I'll have the lobster, please."?
- D. Don't care about presentation? You'll be fine at The Toilet Bowl in Taiwan. The theme of this restaurant is the toilet, and you would be surprised how many people queue up for the experience of eating on toilet seats. Don't be put off by the bowls which are shaped like western-style toilets - it's all part of the scenery!
- E. Welcome to Dans Le Noir restaurant, London! You are about to live an unbelievable experience: eating and drinking in the complete darkness. With the help of our blind guides you are going to re-evaluate the notions of taste and smell through our gastronomic and pedagogical process. Our food, mostly organic, is based on first quality ingredients, making this experience as interesting and tasty as possible.

So, these were just some easy and crazy ideas about how you could get a special travel destination that will give you some unique experiences and exciting journeys. The road is endless!
