UNIT 4. PATH TO MODERN SPAIN
TRANSITION TO DEMOCRACY

1. Put the events in chronological order.

Franco appointed Prince Juan Carlos to replace him.

Spain officially entered the Eurozone.

Spain entered the EEC, which later became the European Union.

King Juan Carlos I began the transition to democracy

The elected political parties created a new constitution.

Spain voted in favour of the Constitution.

Spain joined the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO).

Adolfo Suárez was appointed as Prime Minister.

The first democratic elections in 40 years were held.

Franco appointed Prince Juan Carlos to replace him.
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2. Match the events to the years in which they took place.

First democratic elections in Spain in 40 years.	●	● 2002
Spain entered the EEC.	●	● 1978
Spain joined NATO.	●	● 1976
Adolfo Suárez appointed Prime Minister.	●	● 1975
King Juan Carlos I succeeded Franco.	●	● 1977
Constitution approved by referendum.	●	● 1975
Spain officially entered the Eurozone.	●	● 1982
Franco died.	●	● 1986

LIVEWORKSHEETS