Read the following passage. Next to statements, write TRUE if the statement is true, FALSE if the statement is false, NI if there is no information on this. (5 questions)

Millions of people are leaving their hometowns for the city. What attracts such a great number of people to the city includes job opportunities, facilities, education and entertainment. However, many people do not expect to deal with city problems. Although job opportunities draw people to the city, immigrants need to face unemployment while looking for a suitable job. Competition for high-paying jobs is harsh. Whether to do an unpleasant job to survive until getting the dream job requires efforts and determination. Moving to the city, many people find themselves suffering from health problems that they have never had before. This is the result of the serious pollution. The worst problem would be overcrowding. Living in an indecent space worsens life quality. It puts the residents under stress and strain. Interesting and promising as city life may sound, it is not easy for newcomers at all.
