

Music

Instructions: Read the following characteristics about some genres of music and select the genre that each one belongs to. Then share with your classmates which genre you like the most and say a short description about it.

It is the music part of the values and culture of a people.

In general, the instrumental is more important than the vocal element.

It's a musical style derived from popular music.

Style of American popular music that originated in rural areas.

It's strongly influenced by the Cuban son, from which it adopted its rhythmic pattern

It's based on improvisation and free interpretation.

Pop music

Classical music

Country music

Salsa music

Jazz music

Folkloric music