For adults, there comes a time when career choices can cause a lot of anxiety. If you find yourself undecided about your future career, try following these steps.

ASSESS YOURSELF:

Learn about yourself. Think about your values, your interests, abilities and personality. These qualities will make some professions suitable for you and others completely unfit. You can also take some career tests or talk to a career counsellor.

LIST OUT THE OPTIONS:

You can make a list of possible occupations that may suit you. Remember to refer back to the self-assessment you have made previously.

DO RESEARCH:

Explore the options you have. When doing research about those jobs, find job descriptions and the type of education or training required. Talk to someone in the field you are interested in. They can give you the overall picture of what to expect if you decide to go into that discipline.
