

Topic: Videogames (listening, reading, and writing)

Listening the audio and read the paragraph, then complete in the fill blank in the paragraph.

A video game is a form of interactive entertainment that involves _____ engagement with a _____ or environment through a digital interface. Video games are typically played on electronic _____ such as personal computers, gaming consoles, or _____.

Video games can take many different forms and _____, ranging from action games that involve combat or adventure, to puzzle games that require strategic thinking and _____. Some games are single player, while others can be played online with other players.

The video game _____ has grown significantly over the years, and many people enjoy playing games as a form of _____, socializing, or even as a career. There are many popular game titles and franchises, and new games are constantly being developed and released.

Player.	Virtual world
Genres.	Industry.
Problem-solving.	Entertainment.
Mobile devices.	Devices.

(Speaking)

For this activity you have to get in pairs and do a conversation about video games, then change the roles with your classmate and practice the conversation.

For example.

A) Hello

B) Hi how are you?

A) Very well.

B) Do you like to play video games?

A) Yes, I do and you?

B) Too, what kind of video games do you prefer?

A) I prefer of combat like Free fire and you?

B) Nice, I prefer of adventure like Stumble guys or Mario cars.

A) Ah very good.

After that students have to use the computer or tablet or the teacher will give you access to her computer to play this online game.

<https://wordwall.net/resource/52824716>