

Episode 3

1. loosely translated
2. Cushions the blow
3. Our parents actually did, uh, "send our dog off" to live on a farm
4. Smoke away
5. Relax your hand! "Let your wrist go"
6. It's not even worth it
7. "We're with you", we got it
8. Put the cigarette out
9. They're "all over him"
10. "Picking off" the weak members of the herd
11. Who's gonna "take the first shot"
12. The hair comes out, and the "gloves come on"
13. I have "had it with you" guys and your cancer
14. No-one's ever "put it like that" before

A. Go ahead and do as much as you want of something
B. To ease the pain or stress of something unpleasant
C. To relax one's hand
D. It is not important or useful enough to make an effort doing it
E. To agree with someone
F. To be unenthusiastic about someone or something
G. The translation is not an exact, word-for-word translation but rather a paraphrase that captures the meaning
H. To say it a certain way
I. To extinguish something
J. To pull or gather someone or something off something
K. To not be willing to continue to deal with someone or something
L. To send someone away to something or some place, especially away on a journey
M. To get ready to fight or compete
N. To attack or criticize first