WHAT IS GLOBALISATION?

1. Fill in the gaps with the correct word from the video. Write you answers using CAPITAL LETTERS.

1. The _____ movement of people, ideas, money, goods, data, drugs, weapons, computer and biological viruses, greenhouse gases and more.
2. The Silk Road, a network of _____ routes stretching from the Mediterranean Sea to East Asia facilitated the spread of fabrics, spices, art, etc.
3. What is new, however, is the scale, velocity and _____ of these flows across _____.
4. The _____ of the modern world allows ideas, behaviors, styles, products and news to spread more quickly and _____ than during any other period of history.

2. Are the following sentences TRUE or FALSE?

	TRUE	FALSE
International supply chains produce and distribute goods more quickly and cheaply than ever.
Trade strengthens ties between trading partners and promote peace, security and growth.
Some companies experience outsized gains because the pay little money to workers from their own country.
Globalisation is something governments can opt out.
Although some countries view globalisation as a threat to local identity, no country can be entirely self-sufficient.

Yolanda Garcia

LIVEWORKSHEETS