Countable and uncountable nouns

1 ☆ Complete the table with the words in the box.

butter cheese egg grape mushroom oil onion pasta ~~pea~~ sauce

Countable	Uncountable
pea

2 ☆☆ Complete the sentences with a, an, some or any.

1 We don't have any oil, so we can't make fries.
2 I want _____ cheese in my sandwich, please.
3 I'd like to make _____ pasta for dinner tonight.
4 He has _____ apple for lunch.
5 I don't want _____ chocolate sauce, thanks.
6 We need _____ knife to cut the cake.

there is/are

3 ☆ Complete the dialogue with the correct form of be.

Let's make an apple cake for dessert.

We can't. There 1 aren't any apples.

There 2 _____ some bananas. What about banana cake?

There 3 _____ any eggs. How about making some ice cream?

But there 4 _____ any milk and it takes too long anyway.

There 5 _____ some chocolate and there 6 _____ some yogurts.

4 ☆☆ Complete the text with is, are, a, an or some.

Lady Dinah's Cat Emporium

There 1 are a lot of places in London for afternoon tea and cake, but there 2 _____ an unusual café near my house in Bethnal Green. We always call before we go and ask for 3 _____ table. There are 4 _____ interesting rules, like no children under 12 because there 5 _____ several cats in the café too. There's even 6 _____ Instagram® page with photos of the cats.

5 ☆☆☆ Find six differences between picture A and picture B.

Ⓐ Ⓑ

1 In A there's some milk, but in B there isn't any milk.
2 _____
3 _____
4 _____
5 _____
6 _____

6 ☆☆☆ Complete the sentences so they are true for you.

1 In my fridge there's some _____ , but there aren't any _____ .
2 For dinner tonight, I'd like some _____ .

LIVEWORKSHEETS