

Writing Practice

Write a recipe for a cheese and ham sandwich. Read the TIP box and follow the plan below:

TIP

- When we write a recipe, we start by giving the name of the dish the recipe is for. Then, we list all the ingredients. After that we write the instructions in the correct order. We write each step on a separate line.
- We always use the imperative when we write recipes.

Plan

- Name of the dish the recipe is for.
- Write the list of the ingredients.
- Write the instructions in the correct order.
