

Ex. 1: Listen and tick A, B or C:

1. 	A. <input type="checkbox"/> I'm chatting with them. B. <input type="checkbox"/> I'm going to eat them. C. <input type="checkbox"/> I'm giving them to Mum.
2. 	A. <input type="checkbox"/> OK, I won't. B. <input type="checkbox"/> OK, I don't. C. <input type="checkbox"/> OK, I will.
3. 	A. <input type="checkbox"/> Because you should keep warm. B. <input type="checkbox"/> Because you should brush your teeth. C. <input type="checkbox"/> Because you may fall and break your leg.
4. 	A. <input type="checkbox"/> She may fall off her bike. B. <input type="checkbox"/> She may cut herself. C. <input type="checkbox"/> She may get a burn.
5. 	A. <input type="checkbox"/> Because you may fall down. B. <input type="checkbox"/> Because you may get a fever. C. <input type="checkbox"/> Because you may get a burn.

Ex. 2: Fill in the blank with one word:

1. Don't play with a _____. You may cut yourself.
2. He shouldn't climb the tree because he may _____ and break his leg.
3. Why _____ I play with the matches? Because you may get a burn.
4. They are _____ the apple tree. They may fall.
5. Don't _____ the stove. You may get a burn.