Complete the sentences with the correct words.

- In the freezer, there is a lot of … carrots,
                                         egg,
                                         frozen fish.
- In the cupboard, there are a few … onions,
                                         oil,
                                         butter.
- In the fridge, there is little … cream,
                                      potatoes,
                                      sausage.
- In the cupboard, there are few … bread,
                                      biscuits,
                                      tinned beans.
- In the fridge, there are a couple of … bacon,
                                            eggs,
                                            flour.
- On the kitchen table, there is a little … olives,
                                               peppers,
                                               cheese.