

1) accent /'ækst(ə)nt/	a) correct or true in every detail
2) accurate /'ækjʊrət/	b) the way someone says words and shows what country or region they come from
3) frustrated	c) to be able to live or deal with a situation with difficulty, usually by having just enough of something you need, such as money
4) fluently	d) to speak, write or communicate in some other way what you think or feel
5) to get by	e) feeling ashamed or shy
6) to master	f) to try hard to do something you find difficult
7) to pick up	g) angry or upset because they are being prevented from achieving something
8) to struggle	h) very well
9) to express yourself	i) to stop trying to do something because you think it is too difficult
10) to give up	j) to learn a new skill over a period of time and without a lot of effort
11) embarrassed	k) to learn something thoroughly so that you can do it very well
12) bilingual	l) to have a conversation
13) hold a conversation	m) able to speak two languages equally well