

MOIRA'S SUMMER HOLIDAYS

I'm not sure what I will do on my next holidays.

If I pass all of my exams, and get good grades I will go to Paris. My parents will buy me a first class ticket to visit France. They will book me a nice hotel and they will buy me a lot of clothes. If I stay in France for more than a week I will also visit Versailles.

If my best friend goes with me we will visit Les Champs Elysees.

If we get bored in France we will go to London.

If we decide to visit London we will go to a lot of cencerts there.

If I pass the exams, but don't get good grades they will send me to New York, I will be there for a couple of weeks with my aunt. I will visit a bunch of boring museums, I will attend some charity events, and I will help my aunt organize a gala to raise funds for orphans in Malasya.

If I don't pass any of the exams I will stay at home, my parents will hire a private tutor to help me study, they will also hire an Italian teacher to help me get good grades in my next test. I won't be able to see any of my friends. If I try to run sneak out of the house and visit my friends, my parents are going to take my car away.

I guess I should study and get good grades.
