A Strike Condemned.

Fitzsimmons, May 10.—In an interview today, A. M. Carlton, of the General Executive Board of the Knights of Labor, condemned the strike of the Knights in the coke regions. Said he: "Whenever our men agree to submit their case to arbitration they are bound to submit to it, no difference what the decision may be. Arbitration is our grand principle. If we submit a case to arbitration we would expect the other side to abide by it if it were decided in our favor. Now, when it is against us, and we don't submit, then how can we approach the other side again and ask grand principle. If we submit a case to arbitration we would expect the other side to abide by it if it were decided in our favor. Now, when it is against us, and we don't submit, then how can we approach the other side again and ask for arbitration?"
