

SPEAKING

15

I You and your German friend are planning to go to England to learn English at a language school and have fun. You were at a language school in England last year. Tell your German friend about it.

The following key ideas may help you:

- school
- school programme
- places you visited
- fun activities
- accommodation

II Now plan your visit to England with your friend.

The following key ideas may help you:

- time & location
- finding a school
- accommodation
- transport & travel
- prices & costs

16

I There is a new English website for people visiting your country. One of the writers for the website is in your area and asks you what people do in their free time. Tell the writer about your free time.

The following key ideas may help you:

- places to eat and drink
- cultural activities (theatre, cinema, etc.)
- day trips
- sports & hobbies
- places to meet friends

II Now discuss with the writer what could be on the website for people visiting your country.

The following key ideas may help you:

- practical information (weather, transport, etc.)
- places to visit
- culture & nightlife
- food & drink
- activities for children, teenagers and adults

17

I An English friend asks you about summer work. Talk to her about summer jobs in your country.

The following key ideas may help you:

- working hours
- activities
- money
- types of job
- location

II Now tell your friend about summer jobs you've done and ask her about summer work in her country.

The following key ideas may help you:

- colleagues
- likes & dislikes
- money
- jobs
- location

18

I A group from England is organising a music festival in your area. One of the organisers asks you for your opinion. Tell him about music in your country.

The following key ideas may help you:

- your musical likes and dislikes
- music that's popular in your country
- places to see bands and hear concerts
- festivals
- music on the radio, television and the Internet

II Now plan a music festival for your area with the organiser.

The following key ideas may help you:

- time & place
- music
- ticket prices
- food & drinks
- other activities (theatre, circus, etc.)

19

Your English-speaking friend is celebrating her 21st birthday soon. You want to surprise her. Plan with a friend a surprise birthday activity. You can use the following pictures to help you or use ideas of your own.

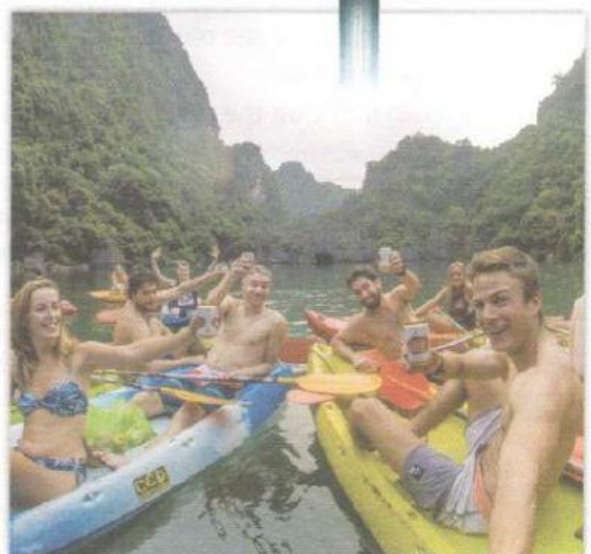

The following key ideas may help you:

- time & place
- activities
- food & drinks
- who to invite
- price

Happy Birthday

20

You and a friend want to do some work to help people or the environment. Plan together with the friend some work you can do. You can use the following pictures to help you or use ideas of your own.

The following key ideas may help you:

- type of help
- activities
- location
- time
- how to start

75

21

You're going to visit a friend in the USA and travel around the country. Plan with your friend the best way to travel across the USA for one month. You can use the following pictures to help you or use ideas of your own.

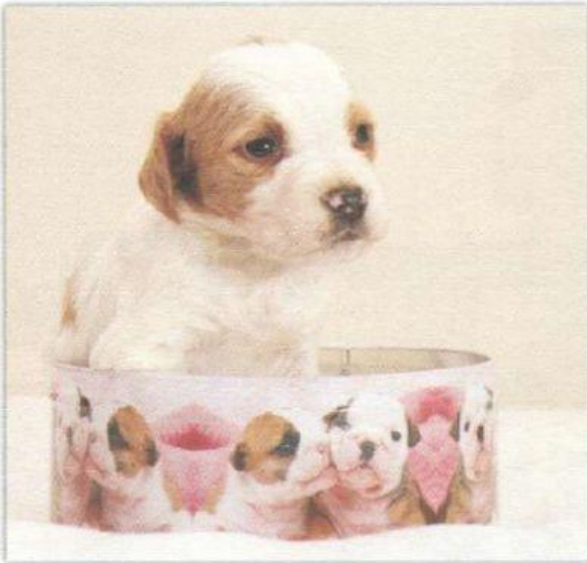

The following key ideas may help you:

- type of transport
- travel time
- comfort
- costs
- booking

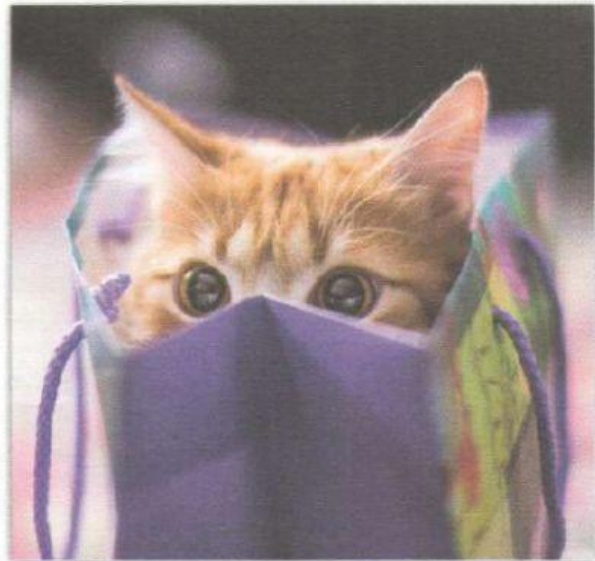

22

Your English friend wants to buy a Christmas present for her sister. Her sister loves animals. Plan together with your friend the best pet to buy. You can use the following pictures to help you or use ideas of your own.

The following key ideas may help you:

- type of animal
- where to keep it
- food & care
- price & cost of care
- where to buy it

77

SPEAKING

23

Your English-speaking friend is visiting for the weekend. You want to do something on Saturday. Plan with the friend a day out together. You can use the following pictures to help you or use ideas of your own.

The following key ideas may help you:

- activities
- time of day
- transport
- clothing
- food & drink

24

A teacher from an English summer school you were at is thinking of moving to your country. He wants to buy a place to live. Discuss with the teacher buying a house or flat in your country. You can use the following pictures to help you or use ideas of your own.

The following key ideas may help you:

- type of house
- location
- size & price
- jobs & transport
- free time

79