Malcolm X

Malcolm Little was born in Omaha, Nebraska, on 19th May, 1925. His father died when he was only 6 and soon after his mother became mentally ill and was put in an institution. As a consequence, Malcolm and his siblings were raised in various reform schools and foster homes.

When he was 21, Malcom was arrested for burglary and sentenced to 10 years in prison. While in jail, he converted to Islam and joined the Nation of Islam, a black supremacist religious organization.

After prison he moved to Chicago, became a minister for the Nation of Islam and changed his name to Malcolm X because he refused the name Little given to his ancestors by white masters. He became a leading spokesman of the Nation of Islam, his ideology was quite the opposite of Martin Luther King's and in the beginning, Malcom X was critical of King and his non-violent activism and cooperation with whites. He thought that non-violent resistance was not efficient and wanted to obtain change by "all means necessary".

In 1964 after a pilgrimage to Mecca and conflicts within the Nation of Islam, he left the organization and formed his own group, the Organization of African American Unity, which was ready to support any action, including violence, to get significant results.

Malcom X was assassinated on 21st February, 1965. In spite of his opposition to King's method, he fought all his life for racial advancement and is remembered as an important civil rights activist.
