

Q1. Match the HTML tags with the correct definitions: -

Open Tag	Closed Tag	Definition
<html>	</html>	It is used to add title of the page which appears on top of the browser window.
<head>	</head>	This tag informs the browser that it is an HTML document.
<title>	</title>	It is the first element inside the <HTML> element which contains the information about the document.
<body>	</body>	This tag is used to provide underline effect to the content
<h1>	</h1>	This tag is used to provide bold effect to the content
		It displays the content of the page which is visible to the user.
		This tag is used to indicate different paragraphs in the content.
		This tag is used to provide heading to your document.
		This tag is used to provide italics effect to the content
 	No closing tags for <hr> and as they are empty elements.	It is used to draw a horizontal line.
<hr>		It is used to provide break in a sentence.

Scroll to the next page

Q.2. State True or False:

1. Full form of HTML is HyperText Mixup Language. True False
2. HTML is a case - sensitive language. True False
3. <> is an open tag symbol. True False
4.  tag is used to insert image in a webpage. True False
5.
..... is a tag used in HTML. True False

Q.3. Drag and drop the words in its required place:

Container </>
 HyperText Markup Language

1. _____ stands for HyperText Markup Language.
2. Open tags and closed tags are represented _____ and </ > respectively.
3. _____ tag is used to provide break in a sentence.
4. _____ elements consist of both on and off tag.

THE END