

You are a pirate. You stole some coins from your mates and you were marooned on a desert island. When you are on the beach, you see a bottle with a letter and a map inside:

Morgan:

We are pirates, but we are not so cruel... We left food, treasure and a boat for you on the other side of the island. You just have to go and get it.

Good luck...

HAHAHA.

You have got a torch, a knife, and some biscuits.

Tell us the story of how you got to the red cross.

You'll find: lots of poisonous snakes, a dreadful lion, a volcano that erupts every 30 minutes and a river full of hungry crocodiles.
