READING

1. Read the blog. Who is visiting Stanley this week?

Hello, my name is Stanley. I'm taking lots of photos at the moment because I go to a camera club. This is a photograph of the park near our house. We often go to this park on Sunday afternoons. This week, my grandparents are visiting us, so there are more of us in the park than usual. It's a very cold day today. Everyone's wearing very warm clothes! OK. Let me tell you about my family at the park. My dad is wearing gloves and coat. My dad's got quite long hair. My mum's got beautiful, short hair. She's wearing her favourite winter coat. My grandmother and grandfather are standing behind my sister. My grandfather is wearing gloves and a jacket. My grandmother is wearing gloves and a beautiful coat. My brother is wearing jeans and a jacket. My sister is standing next to my brother. She's wearing a jacket, but she isn't wearing gloves. 'I don't think it's very cold!' she says.

Charlie gets glasses

Charlie was very good at school. He was always the best in his lessons. He was the first boy in his class to learn the alphabet and he loved reading books. He helped the children in his class who didn't understand the lessons. Everyone liked him. You are a very clever boy, all the teachers told him.

One day, Charlie's teacher wrote something on the board. All the children wrote this in their school books. But Charlie didn't write anything in his school book. He tried to see the letters on the board, but he could see nothing! The next day the teacher wrote on the board and again Charlie didn't write anything in his school book. 'What's the matter, Charlie?' asked his teacher. Charlie was very sad.

After one week, Charlie stopped answering questions in class. Now another child was the best in the class. 'Charlie is the worst in the class', some children said. Charlie knew this and he started to cry. 'When I look at the board, I see nothing,' he told them. Then a small boy took off his glasses and told Charlie 'Try these.' Charlie put the glasses on and he could see again! 'I'm so happy now! I can be the best in my class again!'
