Conversation: "A walk in the woods"

Valerie: What's happening with William? Did you see him this weekend?

Wendy: Yes, I saw him on Wednesday. We went for a walk.

Valerie: What did you do?

Wendy: I said we went for a walk.

Valerie: Where did you walk?

Wendy: In the woods.

Valerie: Where?

Wendy: In the woods. You know, the woods near the highway.

Valerie: Wasn't it cold and wet on Wednesday?

Wendy: Well, it was cold and very windy, but not wet. I wore a heavy wool sweater, and we walked quickly to keep warm.

Valerie: I love walking in the woods. It's so peaceful and quiet.

Wendy: Yeah, it was very quiet once we got away from the highway. There were birds and squirrels everywhere.

Valerie: Wow, it sounds wonderful. Did you spend the whole day in the woods?

Wendy: No. William had to work in the afternoon. I went home around one.

Valerie: What did you do for lunch?

Wendy: We brought sandwiches with us. We stopped for lunch around twelve, and we sat and watched the squirrels for a while but it was too windy to sit long.

Valerie: Well, it sounds like a very nice walk, anyway.

Wendy: It was.
