

Holidays in or out?

Many people enjoy staying over for holidays in their own country instead of going abroad. There are actually many_____ to that! First of all, you can save a lot of money. Hotels in countries popular among tourists are often_____ and the hotel food can be really bad!

Secondly, getting to know your own country is also very important. Many people don't know about extremely interesting_____ in their_____ and decide to visit the foreign lands instead, thinking that it is boring to stay in their borders. Many travelers are also scared of the_____, which will not be a problem if you don't fly somewhere where people don't know your mother tongue.

However, there is no chance to practice your language skills then! Also, there are_____ of interesting people who can tell you about the culture of their own country when you visit and will show you around the city. Well, the decision is yours! If you had a chance, would you_____ visit a country you've never been to before, or would you rather see a new,_____ holiday destination in your country?
