Japan's government (1) _____ age at which people become adults. It is the first time since 1876 that this has happened. From the year 2022, teenagers will become (2) _____ age of 18, which is two years earlier than the age at which adulthood currently legally happens. However, even though the age has been lowered, there (3) _____ things that will not change. The legal age for drinking alcohol, smoking and gambling will (4) _____ 20. The new law will enable 18-year-olds to get married without parental consent, and allow them (5) _____ loans and credit cards. Transgender men and women aged 18 and over will be (6) _____ to courts to have their gender officially recognized.

The new law has been passed (7) _____ to bring about social and economic change in Japan. The government hopes to see an increase in (8) _____ young people getting married and starting families. This will help to address the nation's dwindling birth rate and ageing population. Greater financial freedoms could (9) _____ to the economy and provide more tax revenue. This is vital for a government struggling (10) _____ increasing pension and healthcare payments. Many of Japan's young people were more concerned about how (11) _____ affect the traditional Coming of Age Day. This is a national holiday held in January in which 20-year-olds (12) _____ traditional kimonos to celebrate adulthood.
