

Grammar: Though, although, and even though

Match each main clause with the correct clause with though, although, or even though. Click on the items to make a match.

Click on the light bulb icon to review the Grammar lesson.

1

Efforts to protect the honeybee must continue

Honeybees keep disappearing

Though the elephant is my favorite animal,

Although elephants are endangered,

I have never seen one in the wild.

even though they are expensive.

even though we're working hard to save them.

people continue to hunt them.

2

Though the farmers worked hard to improve the soil,

Although the weather wasn't great,

Although the farmer owns a modern tractor,

Even though the farmer has been growing corn for many years, the crops did fairly well.

he prefers to plow his fields with horses.

their crops were still poor.

he continues to experiment and learn.