

You can Leave Your Hat on by Joe Cocker

goals

vocabulary
phrasal verbs
imperatives

1. What's this? Drag the words to the matching picture.

the lights

the coat

the dress

the chair

the shoes

the hat

Phrasal verbs

2. Listen to the song

a. Drag the prepositions to the matching verbs.

verbs	prepositions
come	on
go	apart
take	back
tear	off
turn	on

b. compare

come
go take tear
turn

tear(s)

to tear

! notice!

to go, to take - verbs

on, off - prepositions

the dress, the chair - nouns

3. Take or take off? Type in prepositions. In some places there are no.

Hello class, let's begin our lesson.

A - Jerry, take your rucksack please.

- Go to your place

B - Carlos go and turn the lights on, please.

- Thank you, now come

C - Everyone! Open your books.

- Read the text, Helen begin!Good job!

- Rob go

D - Tear pieces of paper .

- We will take a short test.

- Helen! Don't turn to Rob!

Imperatives

4. Practice in small groups. Say your partner what to do. Do. Go on.

Vera smile!

Anna, turn right!

