

A. How does the speaker develop his argument? Put the following statements in the correct order.

1	4 companies control 90% of the total grain produced on Earth.
2	Food derived from bacteria has existed for a long time.
3	New techniques for crop growing are being developed.
4	The effect of the increase in food prices is less noticed in rich nations.
5	Farming is the greatest damage we have inflicted on the planet.
6	Lab-grown protein is now a reality.
7	Agricultural use of land is bigger than the urban one.
8	Use of land is the most important environmental issue.
9	For half a century we thought we had solved the problem of hunger.
10	Farming and animal breeding account for the greatest use of land.