

Rewrite the sentences using a modal or modal perfect. Do not change the original meaning.

- 1) I'm certain that's my luggage.
That luggage
- 2) I suggest you book in advance.
You
- 3) They had tickets to the concert, but decided not to go.
They
- 4) Smoking in the hotel is forbidden.
You
- 5) It's impossible that his story is true.
His story
- 6) Does she know how to drive?

- 7) It wasn't necessary to bring me a gift.
You
- 8) Perhaps that was Joe who just walked by.
That
- 9) I'm not sure we made reservations.
We
- 10) There's a possibility that we won't arrive on time.
We
- 11) Participation is mandatory.
Everyone
- 12) We had the option of staying at more expensive accommodation.
We
- 13) There's no need to stand in the queue.
You
- 14) I suggest staying in a hotel near the city centre.
You
- 15) I regret travelling alone.
I
- 16) It's not my luggage because mine is brown.
That

Me: Can I go to the toilet?
Teacher: It's may
Me: No, it's june

