

Read the sentences and the prompts in brackets. Then complete them with the correct words.

1

A food truck is usually (przedimek) large van or trailer which is equipped to prepare (spójnik) sell food.

2

(słowo określające ilość) food trucks sell pre-packaged food while others serve food (zaimek osobowy) make on-site.

3

(przedimek) most common foods which (czasownik) served from food trucks are sandwiches, burgers, French fries, pancakes and sweets.

4

Recently, food trucks (czasownik posiłkowy) become very popular and (czasownik modalny) soon top the list of the most common places to (czasownik) out.

5

(przyimek, część wyrażenia) to some statistics, food trucks serve about 2.5 billion people every day all (przyimek, część wyrażenia) the world.

Przeczytaj tekst. Uzupełnij każdą lukę (1–6) jednym wyrazem tak, aby powstała spójna i logiczna wypowiedź. Wymagana jest pełna poprawność gramatyczna i ortograficzna wpisywanych wyrazów.

Food trucks may seem like a new invention, but, in fact, they have been around for centuries. According to historians, even the ancient Romans sold food (1) this manner, not from a motorised truck of course, but from a cart drawn by animals. When it comes to the USA, the first food trucks were called chuckwagons, and they offered their services (2) cowboys in the American prairies. (3) typical wagon would sell beans, barbecued meat, coffee, biscuits, water and firewood. Later on, food trucks began to operate at (4) of the top American university campuses, like Yale or Harvard, providing cheap food to students. However, the first mobile food truck as we know it appeared (5) the streets of Los Angeles in the 1970s, and it sold Mexican tacos. Since then, food trucks (6) become a common feature of towns and cities across the world. They offer affordable, tasty food and drinks, and, what's more, free Wi-Fi

Przeczytaj tekst. Uzupełnij każdą lukę (1–6) jednym wyrazem tak, aby powstała spójna i logiczna wypowiedź. Wymagana jest pełna poprawność gramatyczna i ortograficzna wpisywanych wyrazów.

Do you like trying new foods? Would you like to (1) out about new spices or ingredients to use in your own cooking? If so, why not explore the idea of food tourism? It's a trend that has resulted (2) a growing interest in international cuisines, regional dishes, eco-food production and the history of food. A significant (3) of experts says that the interest has gone up in the last few years thanks to food trucks which sell a variety of food from all over the world. People taste it and then want to visit the regions or the countries where the food (4) . The most common activities that food tourists enjoy include taking a street food tour, following regional product routes (e.g. coffee routes), cooking and sharing meals with local people, (5) part in food festivals and even working as a street food seller. Culinary or gastro tourism, as it is also known, is (6) ideal way of connecting people, places and history. It's about respect for the local people, their traditions and the environment. So, next time you're planning a holiday, why don't you think of a place where you can experience something authentic and delicious at the same time?

Przeczytaj tekst. Uzupełnij każdą lukę (1–7) jednym wyrazem tak, aby powstała spójna i logiczna wypowiedź. Wymagana jest pełna poprawność gramatyczna i ortograficzna wpisywanych wyrazów.

You're starving, really starving. However, you have (1) time to cook anything from scratch, and you don't fancy another microwave pizza or sandwich. What do you do? You've just (2) your parents buying a take and bake kit from your local supermarket last week. It's a spicy curry. It'll do. If you have ever been in this situation, you know that those kits can save one's life. The catering industry knows it too, and so they (3) up with more and more inventive ways to allow you to make top-quality dishes at home. The kits come with (4) the ingredients you need to prepare a scrumptious meal. And it's not just supermarkets selling those kits these days. It's the restaurants themselves which have (5) of them on sale too. The kits vary in terms of the price, the amount of prep work you must put (6) and the challenge level they involve. The only concern may be (7) packaging, so when you order a DIY meal, make sure that the boxes or wrapping are recyclable.

Przeczytaj tekst. Uzupełnij każdą lukę (1–6) jednym wyrazem tak, aby powstała spójna i logiczna wypowiedź. Wymagana jest pełna poprawność gramatyczna i ortograficzna wpisywanych wyrazów.

Sometimes I hear that I'm not a typical teenager because I adore cooking and inventing new dishes. Perhaps I'm not typical, but certainly I'm not (1) only one! A group of friends and I have just decided to throw a party at home, cook all the food for it and, on (2) of that, make it a truly restaurant-like experience. We've invited a few friends and got them to contribute financially to this feast – not a lot, but (3) to buy all the necessary ingredients. We've selected a theme, and decided to have a warm, laid-back Italian restaurant feel. The menu has been the greatest challenge (4) far as we've also got to make some vegan and vegetarian dishes for our friends. I asked my mum (5) some advice, and I think we'll go for some veggie pasta dish, salami pizza slices, and a tuna salad. They are easy-to-follow recipes and will, touch wood, guarantee our culinary success. We're going to dress (6) as chefs, too, to impress our friends. I'm really looking forward to (7) their faces!