Using Irregular Verbs in Past Participle Form

1. For many verbs, the past participle form does not end in –ed.
2. The participle tense form of these verbs is irregular.

● Use the correct form of the helping verb "to be" and the past participle after the subject.

| [subject] + [form of "to be"] + [past participle] |
|---|

Directions: Choose the correct form of the helping verb "to be". Then write the correct form of the verb in irregular past participle form.

Example:   The water (am/are/is) _____ (to freeze).
The water (am/are/is)___frozen___ (to freeze).
