INGREDIENTS

- (1) ½ cup rice flour
 - (2) 2 ½ cups coconut milk
 - (3) ½ cup freshly grated coconut (or ½ cup unsweetened dried coconut flakes moistened with 1-2 tbsp water)
 - (4) 1 tbsp salt
 - (5) 3 pandan leaves (tied in a knot)
- Palem sugar
- (1) 1 pandan leaf
 - (2) ½ cup palm sugar (grated or crumbled)
 - (3) ¼ cup water

INSTRUCTIONS

To make palm sugar syrup:

Tear pandan leaf into strips and tie strips together in a knot. In a small saucepan, add pandan leaf, sugar, and ¼ cup of water. Simmer for about 5 minutes. Keep stirring until sugar is completely dissolved. Take out pandan leaf and pour syrup through a sieve into a bowl. Set aside to cool.

To make the bubur :

- (1) In a mixing bowl, combine the coconut milk, rice flour and ½ tsp salt. Pour mixture through a sieve to remove lumps.
- (2) Place the mixture in a non-stick saucepan, add pandan leaves and cook the mixture on low heat for about 15-20 mins. While cooking, stir constantly until the mixture thickens and start to boil. Remove from the heat and pour into serving bowls.
- (3) Combine the grated coconut and salt, and mix well.
- (4) To serve, top bubur sumsum with palm sugar syrup.

This text is for questions 16 to 19

I remember a very embarrassing story that occurred to me one year ago, on my graduation day from junior high school.

During my graduation I was wearing uncomfortable sandals and I brought wedges in a separate bag to change into after we walked across the stage. I thought it would be a good idea to change shoes while standing in line. When I was switching shoes, one of them fell out of my hand and as I went down to grab it, I slipped on my graduation gown and flashed everyone in line. All I could do was get up and not make eye contact with anyone. It didn't help that my friend behind me muttered repeatedly, "I don't know you, I don't know you, I don't know you. I'm not your friend." I really wanted to screamed at her, "it's not only you who is ashamed. I am ashamed of myself too!" But my face was too red to speak even a word.

16. What is the best title of the text above?
- A. Ashamed at my graduation party
 - B. The broken friendship
 - C. The broken sandals
 - D. The graduate lines
17. Why did the writer want to change her sandals?
- A. Because she wanted to help her friend whose shoes weren't comfortable.
 - B. Because the sandals she wore at first weren't comfortable
 - C. Because she wanted to look more glamorous
 - D. Because the first sandals were broken off
18. What did the writer do after hearing her friend say that she didn't know her?
- A. She kept silent
 - B. She screamed at her
 - C. She pretended not to hear
 - D. She kept reaching for her shoes
19. "My friend behind me muttered repeatedly." (Paragrap 2)
The underlined word is closest in meaning to...
- A. Noisily
 - B. Quietly
 - C. Silently
 - D. Frequently
