C2. UNIT 3: VOCABULARY REVISION: HONESTY & POLITICS

Fill in the gaps with words from the box.

enforce regulations for	candid	mind-blowing	tap into	overstate
stand up for	akin	eye-opening	shape policy in	true colours
spin	predicament	allocate resources	buttress	bridge the gap
gloss over	play up	come clean	losing face	cast a vote

1. It's best not to _____(1) your accomplishments in a job interview.
2. Politicians often _____(2) their successes during elections.
3. When faced with adversity, one must show their _____(3).
4. A _____(4) conversation is necessary for resolving conflicts.
5. The only way to clear your conscience is to _____(5) about what happened.
6. Let's not _____(6) the fact that mistakes were made.
7. If we fail to meet our targets, we risk _____(7) in front of our competitors.
8. It's important to _____(8) effectively to avoid wasting money.
9. We must _____(9) our principles and values, even if it's unpopular.
10. Our government has the power to _____(10) a way that benefits everyone.
11. Companies should _____(11) workplace safety to protect their employees.
12. Don't believe everything you read in the news; sometimes they _____(12) the story for their own benefit.
13. Every citizen has a responsibility to _____(13) during elections.
14. To _____(14) between different communities, we must first understand each other's perspectives.
15. Traveling to new places can be _____(15) and broaden our horizons.
16. Finding a way out of this _____(16) won't be easy, but we must try.
17. The scientific discoveries of the past century have been truly _____(17).
18. We need to _____(18) our arguments with solid evidence to convince others.
19. Businesses need to _____(19) the potential of the digital market to remain competitive.
20. Biologically speaking, humans are _____(20) to apes and share many similarities.

LIVEWORKSHEETS