

B Adverbs of manner

Adverbs of manner describe the way in which something happens and usually answer questions beginning with how.

SPELLING

- We form most regular adverbs of manner by adding -ly to the corresponding adjective.
quiet → quietly careful → carefully
- Adjectives which end in a consonant + -y, drop the -y and take -ily.
easy → easily
- Adjectives which end in -le, drop the -e and take -ly.
terrible → terribly

IRREGULAR ADVERBS
ADJECTIVES	ADVERBS
good	well
fast	fast
early	early
late	late
hard	hard

D Write the adverbs of the adjectives in bold, as in the example.

- He's a careful driver. He drives carefully.
- James and Stuart are terrible players. They play _____.
- The baby is very quiet. He sleeps _____.
- Mandy is a good painter. She paints _____.
- Tim is a fast runner. He runs _____.
- All the children in the park were happy. They played _____.
- This is an easy exercise. You can do it _____.
- Alice is a very polite student. She speaks to her teachers _____.

E Complete with the adverbs of the adjectives in brackets.

Last month, Julia entered a painting competition at school. She chose what to paint

1 _____ (careful) and practised 2 _____ (hard) every evening. On the day of the competition, she arrived at school 3 _____ (early), but the competition started 4 _____ (late) and she was on last.

So she waited a long time. The students before her painted

5 _____ (terrible), but Julia painted very 6 _____ (good).

At the end of the competition, Mr Phillips walked on the stage 7 _____

(slow) and read out the winner's name, 'Julia!'. All the students shouted, 'Bravo!'

8 _____ (loud). It was a great night.