Task 2. Listen again and fill in the blanks.

As any well-traveled person can tell you, hotels come in all shapes and sizes. Depending on a person's (1) _____, travelers can find a wide range of (2) _____ from huge resorts and spas to small roadside hotels. However, there are also (3) _____ types of hotels that are run by people from their own homes. These are called Bed and Breakfast Inns, or simply shortened to B&Bs. Often considered to be more welcoming than (4) _____ hotel chains, B&Bs can provide a welcome change for vacation or (5) _____ travelers from other types of hotels.

At a B&B, the guest sleeps in one of the rooms of the house. Usually these rooms are furnished with (6) _____ furniture. Sometimes they contain something that is (7) _____ for their location. As a guest in the house, people are welcome to make (8) _____ at home in other rooms of the house, including the living room, study, porch, or kitchen. In fact, many B&Bs (9) _____ "social hours" in the evening in the living or dining room. At these times, guests can (10) _____ other people staying at the inn or chat with the (11) _____.

Another (12) _____ thing about these inns is that breakfast comes with the room, as one might guess from the name Bed and Breakfast. However, breakfast at a B&B is not just cold (13) _____, toast, and (14) _____ like many hotels serve in the morning. The owner of the B&B (15) _____ prepares a home-cooked meal for guests.
